FRANKENBERGER—DAVIS.

The wedding of Miss Henrietta Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis of this city, to Mr. Herbert Frankenger of Charleston, W. Va., took place at the bride's home in Market street yesterday at high noon.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms and greens.

As the noon hour approached the Lohengrin Wedding March was beautifully sung by Mrs. Cummings.

First came the groom, handsome in the conventional black, with his best man and father, Mr. Max Frankenger. Then came the Maid of Honor, Miss Nannett Levi, niece of the bride, in a charming and simple dress of white organza, carrying an immense bunch of pink roses. Next came the bride with her father, beautiful in a white silk dress covered with white mull embroidered in white satin roses, and Duchess and point lace. She wore the wedding veil that her three other sisters wore, and the only ornament was a handsome heart of diamonds, a gift of the groom's father. During the ceremony "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was beautifully rendered.

Rabbi Volmer of Charleston officiated.

After the bride and groom received congratulations an elegant dinner was served.

Mr. Ben Davis, brother of the bride, was toast master.

The bride and groom left for the East. The bride's going away costume was a handsome tailor suit of green chiffon broadcloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankenger were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents.

"NEWS" THAT'S "NEWS"

Wild and Woolly Report Sent Out From This City

This appeared in The Lexington Leader a few days ago—

MAYSVILLE, KY., Feb. 4.—During last year a fifty thousand dollar warehouse and stemming factory was built here under supervision of the Continental Tobacco Company, Maysvillians furnishing the entire amount of capital to erect the building with guarantees that the stock should pay six per cent. Today the Continental Company made a proposition to take all stock, paying the principal and interest for one year. About all of the stockholders have agreed to sell.

It is rumored that the Continental will start a plug tobacco factory. It is stated that the Continental is in the field to buy tobacco at a higher price than Growers Association can afford to pay, expecting the growers to break their contracts with the Association.

There are two buildings.

One is a warehouse.

The other is not a "stemming factory," whatever that means, for whoever heard of manufacturing tobacco stems!

The two buildings cost $54,000.

The Continental did not guarantee that the stock should pay 6%, but rented the buildings for $5,400 a year, or 10% of cost, with privilege of purchase at any time at cost price.

The Continental made no proposition to take the stock by paying principal and interest for one year; consequently, neither "about all" nor any one of the stockholders have agreed to sell.

The "rumored" paragraph which winds up this wonderful bit of "news" is about on a par with the rest of the item.

With the few unimportant exceptions noted, The Leader's dispatch is all right.

At the Washington Opera-house at a recent performance a couple of ladies sitting in front of a few men were thoroughly disgusted at finding that their skirts had been fairly soaked with tobacco juice with which the gentlemen have covered the floor in their vicinity. At the same show, in another section of the lower floor, other parties munched peanuts throughout the performance. Without making any further note, patrons hope that the Managers of the Opera-house will not allow the annoyances to be repeated.

THE Lexington Leader says Judge McQUOWN of the counsel for the HARGISES, CALLAHAN and SPICER now frankly admits that it was impossible for CALLAHAN to be arrested and give bond in Jackson at the same time he was before the Court at Winchester, and explains Mr. CALLAHAN's reprehensible lack of ubiquitousness by saying the date of the Breathitt records should have read "December 6th" instead of "December 5th," which is a mere bagatelle, according to the official way of reckoning things in Jackson and Breathitt counties.

ALL is quiet just now in the Fayette-Breathitt legal war; and it looks like Judge HARGISE is "doing as he damn pleases."

AN inquirer asked The Courier-Journal "why it was that the Japanese did not hold Port Arthur and that part of the country which the Japs won from the Chinese in the war with them in 1894?" And the answer is thus given, being a concise history of the causes that led to the present War between Russia and Japan—

"At the close of the war between China and Japan the latter was completely victorious, and therefore able to dictate terms of peace, and the parties actually made a treaty giving to Japan all that she desired, including Port Arthur and the Liao Tung Peninsula. Thereupon, Russia, France and Germany intervened, and on specious pleas deprived Japan of the principal fruits of her victory. The combination was too powerful for Japan to resist at the time, and she yielded to the threat of superior force. Then Russia got into Manchuria, under promise to withdraw in due time. She even went so far as to fix a day for withdrawal, but failed to keep her promise. Then followed negotiations, which, proving fruitless, Japan went to war with Russia.

"It is worthy of remark that Russia is now protesting against all interference to preserve the integrity of China by those who have been mere idle spectators of the war. But in doing this she condemns her own interference ten years ago, after Japan had won a decisive victory."

CAPTAIN J. C. GRANNAN

His Death in Cincinnati—Was Related in Maysville

After months of suffering from a complication of diseases, Captain Joseph C. Grannan died Saturday night at his home in Cincinnati, aged 69.

During the War he was for a time Captain of Cavalry, but resigned at the request of the War Department that he might be placed in the Secret Service.

After the War he was Chief of Detectives in Cincinnati, but for more than thirty years had been at the head of the Grannan Detective Agency, one of the most famous in the country.

Some years ago he "turned the trick" for a Maysville law firm who wanted some evidence in a case; and the lawyers aren't yet done laughing over the way he did it.

His wife was a daughter of the late James Davis of this city, and she, with two sons and a daughter, survives. He was also related to the Ballengers of this city.

Mr. Robert Lee Straus was the only one in this city who was honored with an invitation to the Frankenberger Davis wedding yesterday.

Mr. William C. Deming, formerly of Mt. Olivet, now a Cheyenne (Wyo.) newspaperman, was Secretary of that state's Commission at the late World's Fair in St. Louis.

Rev. W. W. Hall left yesterday evening for Vanceburg where he will officiate at the funeral of a life long friend, James R. Pugh, Sr., this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The deceased is the father of Hon. James R. Pugh of that city.

DECISION OF COURT

The Opinion Rendered in Fleming County Telephone Suit

In affirming the suit of the Mt. Carmel Telephone Company v. the Mt. Carmel and Flemingsburg Telephone Company, appealed from the Fleming Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals, by Judge Barker, rendered the following opinion—

Corporations—Organization—Rights of Subscribers to Organize—Majority to Control. Organization.—Thirty-six persons subscribe various sums for the purpose of organizing a telephone company, and appoint a committee of nine of their number to prepare articles of incorporation, five of whom agree on articles which the other four refuse to accept, and which the remaining subscribers also refuse to accept, and the five members proceed to organize a corporation under one name, while the other thirty-one subscribers also organize under another name, the latter holding the subscription list and money paid in for which the corporation composed of the five members has brought this suit.

Held—That the subscribers for the stock of a proposed corporation, before they are incorporated, are partners in the business which they have in hand and a committee appointed to prepare articles of incorporation are merely agents of the larger body, and it is not obligatory on the larger body to accept the articles prepared by such agents, and the larger body had the right to reject the same, and adopt articles of their own, and having done so the larger body is entitled to the assets of the partnership.

Messrs. McCartney, Dearing & Grannis were the Attorneys for appellant; E. L. Werthington, J. H. Power, O. R. Bright for appellees.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED

The Success of the Tobacco Fair is Now Assured

At the meeting held at the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon for the purpose of arranging for the Tobacco Fair, Hon. Joseph F. Walton acted as Chairman. Preliminary arrangements were made for the Tobacco Fair. Messrs. C. T. Calvert, Ben Wood, Curt Rains and C. F. Owens were appointed to act in conjunction with Mr. Walton and Mr. Duley to appoint the necessary Committees to have charge of everything pertaining to the receiving, classifying and awarding of premiums on Tobacco Fair day. Also, to appoint Committees from all the precincts in Mason county, and such other counties as they might select, to encourage the growers to have exhibits at the Tobacco Fair. The outlook for a large display at the Fair this year is very flattering.

A letter from Mr. W. W. Wikoff was read, stating that a large canning factory from Cincinnati desires to establish a branch factory at this point. They wish to know whether or not the farmers of Mason county would be interested in growing tomatoes and pickles sufficient to justify such a factory. Quite a number of farmers present expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of such a movement. Mr. Wikoff was requested to learn when it would be convenient for a representative of the company to be here, when another similar meeting could be held and the matter more fully explained to the farmer. Of course, they wish to be posted as to the prices which the company would be willing to pay for such vegetables.

Avoid of Strong Medicines.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. My last invoice of these Extra Fancy Open Kettle Molasses just in. They go at the surprisingly low price of 45c. The quality can't be beat. My fine Blended Coffee are the talk of the town. They still go at 15c, 20c and 25c. No money in them to me at the prices, but they are snaps for you. FINEST TEAS bought directly from the importers. Can't be equaled in Maysville, either in price or quality. PERFECTION FLOUR always gives satisfaction. If you want the best at all times don't buy any other brand. You know I would not sell it and recommend it for sixteen years continuously if it was not what I claim for it—always the best. Those extra five fall each MACKEREL are going like hot cakes just because they are what I recommended them to be—the finest that can be bought. Remember, I sell to be just as recommended. If I tell you an article is the best, and you find it is not, return it and get your money back. At the extremely low prices I have named on these goods I must ask my customers to pay cash when they wish to take advantage of the prices.
